

Watercolor Painting Workshop with Luke Buck

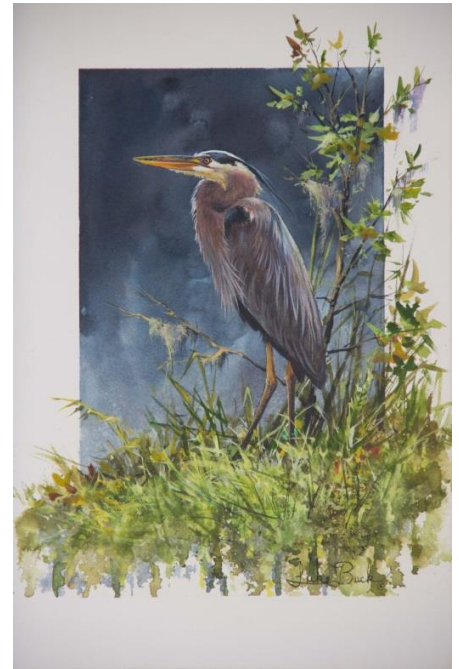

“Controlled Spontaneity”

“The class will focus attention on the artist making the controlled technical aspects appear spontaneous, easy, free flowing and relaxed, to give the work a more appealing artistic painterly flair.”

Raven Hill Discovery Center

4737 Fuller Road, East Jordan, Michigan 49727

Thursday, June 23, 2015 and Friday, June 24, 2015
10:00 am to 3:00 pm both days

Early enrollment is encouraged, as space is limited.

“Raven Hill Discovery Center has once again been kind enough to invite me back for a seventh Watercolor Workshop, and I am thrilled about it. Not only is this area one of my favorite places to visit but also has the nicest folks to visit with. Plus the Discovery Center is one of the most interesting & appropriate places to have an artist workshop that I could imagine. This year’s theme, “Controlled Spontaneity”, will emphasize traditional watercolor painting with a focus on the artist making the controlled technical aspects appear spontaneous, easy, free flowing and relaxed, to give the work a more appealing artistic painterly flair.” Luke Buck

Luke will share his unique painting techniques combining transparent watercolor and gouache. The workshop is designed for the novice beginner, intermediate, or the more advanced & accomplished watercolor artist. As always, this informal workshop will be a motivational, creative, and inspirational session with enjoyment and camaraderie among friends and fellow artists. Luke Buck, a native "Hoosier", grew up and studied art in Indiana. His nostalgic paintings of Americana landscapes and American wildlife show a love for life, art, and nature. Many “locals” here in northern Michigan appreciate his talents and enjoy collecting his paintings.

Cost: $250 for 2 days. Lunch is included. Contact Cheri or Caitlin to register or for more information:
